SCSO Assists in Arrest of Individual wanted for Warrant, Aggravated Assault

On 9/18/2014 just before 7:00 pm, a Shelby County Sheriff's deputy while on routine patrol near Raleigh Millington and New Allen Roads got a hit on a 1997 Oldsmobile Cutlass informing him that the registered owner had a local warrant from Bartlett.

After making the stop and verifying the driver, the deputy attempted to take the suspect, Martin Boyd into custody. Boyd refused then got back into his vehicle and took off. Moments later, the deputy perused him into an area of the Allen Town Mobile Home Community eventually winding up on a dead end street.

The deputy exited his vehicle and once again demanded the suspect Boyd surrender at gunpoint, but that order was ignored and Boyd attempted to strike the deputy with his vehicle while fleeing.

The SCSO pursuit was discontinued after a few miles until Boyd's vehicle was again spotted near Millington when another pursuit ensued lead by Millington Police.

Eventually; Boyd was stopped on Hwy 51 just south of Navy Road and arrested by Millington officers.

Martin Boyd will face Aggravated Assault and additional charges in this case.
